ANNETTE LARABEE, SENIOR VP, CONNECTICUT RIVER COMMUNITY BANK
RECEIVES HARTFORD BUSINESS JOURNAL AWARD

WETHERSFIELD, CT (October 28, 2009) — Annette Larabee, Senior VP and Senior Loan Officer at Connecticut River Community Bank was chosen as one of Hartford Business Journal's "40 Under Forty" award winners for 2009. The award recognizes personal excellence and achievement, commitment to business growth, and deep involvement within the community.

The winners were honored by The Hartford Business Journal at a reception and dinner held on September 30th recognizing the class of 2009 for their role in shaping the future of Greater Hartford.

Ms. Larabee joined Connecticut River Community Bank in July 2003 as Vice President and Commercial Loan Officer. Before that she was the Credit Department Manager at The Savings Bank of Manchester, and a bank examiner for the FDIC.

She currently serves on the boards of several local organizations including the Glastonbury Town Center Initiative, WomenLead, and the Glastonbury Chamber of Commerce where she serves as chairperson of the Ambassadors. She is also chairperson of the Glastonbury YMCA.

Ms. Larabee lives in Glastonbury with her husband Jonathan and their three children.

Connecticut River Community Bank, founded in 2002 and with offices in Wethersfield, Glastonbury and West Hartford, is a full service community bank serving both businesses and consumers throughout central Connecticut.
